California Water Quality Monitoring Council

The State Water Resources Control Board invites you to join us at the 2018 California Trash Data Dive in Richmond, CA. We are bringing together data scientists and trash experts to better understand the trash life cycle and assess our monitoring efforts. If you are data scientist or trash expert interested in participating or simply want to stay informed of our efforts, please sign up for the event here:

<https://catrashdatadive18.eventbrite.com>

For more information on the event and other trash monitoring efforts, click here: <http://trashmonitoring.org/notes-from-the-field/data-dive>

Please share with others who may be interested.
